PUBLIC RELATIONS

Public Relation Policy Statement

The Idaho Grain Producers Association supports

- membership and participation in ANRI-PAC, Channel Deepening Coalition, Food Producers of Idaho, ICIE and the NAWG Wheat PAC,
- the efforts of the Wheat Foods Council and National Barley Foods Council,
- "AG in the Classroom", "Bread in a Bag" programs,
- full funding for NAWG and NBGA on a production formula basis.

Resolution No. Pr-1 - "Idaho Grain" Magazine

The Idaho Grain Producers Association strongly supports a flexible collaboration for the publication of the "IDAHO GRAIN" magazine with the Idaho Wheat Commission and the Idaho Barley Commission.

Supporting Statement

The "IDAHO GRAIN" magazine is the most effective tool for distributing education and information of the combined grain industry.

Resolution No. Pr-2 Unified Working Relationship

The Idaho Grain Producers Association supports the NAWG, NAWG Foundation, and US Wheat, to create and maintain a unified working relationship through consolidation.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership Policy Statement

The Idaho Grain Producers Association supports

- recruitment of women for active organizational involvement.

Resolution No. Memb-1 Increasing Membership

The Idaho Grain Producers Association recommends establishing a committee to research ways to increase the IGPA membership.

Resolution No. Memb- 2 - One Day In County

The Idaho Grain Producers Association requests that the Executive Director or a member of the Executive Board spend one day in each organized county a year. Time would be spent with the County President and the Board of Directors to contact potential members in the county and associate members.

Resolution No. Memb- 3 - Convention Attendance

The Idaho Grain Producers Association encourages all organized counties to provide a scholarship for members that have not previously attended an Idaho Grain Producers Association convention. The Idaho Grain Producers Association Executive Board will work with counties that have limited funding to locate and secure funding. Implementing methods of at least one new member from each county organization to the state convention will be forwarded to county executives.
